SECTION 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On May 12, 2005, at a meeting of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Gentex Corporation (the "Company"), the Board approved a change to its non-employee director compensation program. Each non-employee director will now receive an annual cash retainer of $9,000 (previously $7,000) for services as a director. In addition, each chair of the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee of the Board will receive an additional annual cash retainer of $3,000 for chairing such committees (no additional fees have previously been paid to committee chairmen). The non-employee directors will also receive $1,200 (previously $1,000) for each Board meeting attended and $900 (previously $750) for each committee meeting attended.

The annual retainer and meeting fees were increased due to the increased length of meetings, as well as the additional meeting preparation time, especially for committee chairmen, primarily as a result of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the NASDAQ corporate governance rules, and related corporate governance requirements.

Besides the cash retainer and meeting fees discussed above, each non-employee director will continue to receive an option to purchase 6,000 shares of the Company's common stock following each annual meeting of shareholders, at a price per share equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on that date. The Company reimburses all non-employee directors for expenses incurred to attend meetings of the Board or its committees, promptly after such expenses are incurred and submitted. The Company also makes use of its aircraft available to directors for personal use if such use does not conflict with any business purpose; however, the director is required to reimburse the Company for the incremental cost associated with such use.

SIGNATURE
